Take a Horse-Drawn Hayride Through the Ahwatukee Foothills

Phoenix, AZ, December 12, 2007 – For the twelfth year, The Festival of Lights is hosting Horse-Drawn Hayrides in the Ahwatukee Foothills. These round-trip excursions take riders from Altadena Middle School to the Telegraph Pass Hiking Trail at the base of South Mountain, where they disembark for a Luminary Hike operated by local Boy Scout Troop 14. The Troop will also sell hot chocolate and cookies at the trailhead to benefit their Troop. “This is a fun family way to see some elaborate holiday lights and enjoy the Season. Sometimes, the riders even caroling through the neighborhoods!” said Dixie Prosser, FOL Administrative Director.
